Every Heart
That flutters, palpitates, skips beats, pains or tires out easily, causing shortness of breath, smothering, oppression in the chest, bad dreams, fainting or sinking spells, is weak or diseased, and treatment should not be postponed a single day. The safest, best and most economical remedy for weak hearts is
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.
"My heart would palpitate so that it seemed it was going to jump out of my mouth, and extreme weakness with nervous sensations would follow these spells. I would have sinking spells when I could not speak above a whisper. When doctors failed me, Dr. Miles' Heart Cure saved my life, cured my heart trouble and restored my health."

DAMROSCH SOCIETY
A Male Singing Organization's Successful Career.
ITS MUSICAL DIRECTORS
The Artists Whom It Has Brought Before the Public.
PRESENT MEMBERSHIP
Shortly over five years ago a small group of gentlemen, each of whom is a factor in the musical life of Washington, met at the residence of one of their number, and the question of the organization of a male singing club on somewhat new lines was fully discussed. At that meeting the Damrosch Society was born, and at once began a career which has proved enviable. The society's name was selected in honor of the famous son of a famous father, and one of the pleasantest incidents in this connection was a banquet tendered by the society to its "name-father," Mr. Walter Damrosch, during one of the seasons of grand opera given here under his leadership.

Eugene F. Stevens, President.
The very outset of the question of a musical director and accompanist was given serious consideration. It resulted in the selection of Mr. Herndon Morsell as the former, and of Mr. Edmund A. Varela as the latter. Mr. Morsell's knowledge and skill were of great value to the infant organization, which received the benefit of these qualities until he was compelled to withdraw from the society on account of his growing private interests. The choice of his successor unanimously fell upon Mr. Varela, whose work as accompanist had shown great possibilities, and who has since occupied the post of musical director to the decided advantage of the society. Mr. Varela has come prominently to the front as one of the youngest and most successful musical leaders in the city, and is at present the director of the choir of the Church of the Epiphany. To supply the vacancy in the position of accompanist caused by Mr. Varela's advancement, the society was hardly less fortunate in being able to enlist the services of Mr. Archibald Olmstead, one of the most accomplished of the younger pianists here, and who is now organist at St. Thomas' church.

The singing membership has been carefully selected and includes some of the best male voices in the District. There is hardly a member of the society who is not doing acceptable work in one of the choirs of the city. Most of them have held positions as soloists. Among those now engaged as such are the following: Messrs. Charles F. Roberts and Melville D. Hensley, at St. John's, Washington; Mr. Louis W. Weaver, at St. John's, Georgetown; Mr. Otto J. J. Luckert, at Epiphany; Mr. James G. Traylor, at Ascension; Mr. John H. Nolan, at the New York Avenue Presbyterian; Mr. Chas. E. Myers, at the Eastern Presbyterian; Messrs. Eugene E. Stevens and George Schaff, at the Church of the Reformation; Mr. William F. Kenney, at St. Dominic's; Mr. Wm. Shiao, at St. Matthew's.
The business side of the society is cared for by the board of governors, and the wisdom of relieving the society of the necessity of settling matters of routine has been proved again and again. Only in a case involving the policy of the organization is a full meeting called. A stated annual meeting is held for the purpose of electing the officers of the society, the reception of reports and matters of like kind.
From the first the board of governors has acted with much deliberation. No step in advance was taken until every phase of the responsibility incident thereto had been fully considered. Thus gradually the scope of the society's work widened, and its appearance became more and more important from a musical point of view as the seasons passed.

During its existence the society has elected the following: President, Mr. Eugene E. Stevens; recording secretary, Mr. James G. Traylor; financial secretary, Mr. Edmund H. Parry; treasurer, Mr. George Schaff; librarian, Mr. William F. Kenney; Mr. H. D. Jacobs, Mr. George S. Cooper, Mr. Wm. C. Downey, Mr. Melville D. Hensley, Mr. Geo. H. Judd, Mr. Wm. M. Mooney, Mr. Chas. E. Myers, Mr. George S. Raymond, Mr. Chas. S. Richards, Dr. D. H. Riggs, Mr. Jacob Schaff, Mr. George D. Tucker, Mr. Andrew Y. Bradley, Mr. Wm. A. Domes, Mr. G. Thomas Dunlop, Mr. Ernest P. Hoff, Mr. Maurice G. Kalns, Mr. Arthur C. Moses, Mr. John H. Nolan, Mr. Charles H. Roberts, Mr. W. Shiao, Sheetz, Dr. C. J. Wallace, Mr. Louis W. Weaver, Musical director, Mr. Edmund A. Varela; accompanist, Mr. Archibald Olmstead.

Council of Jewish Women.
The Washington, D. C. Section, Council of Jewish Women, has arranged to hold the last public meeting for this season tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the vestry of the temple. An interesting program is arranged, with the following to take part: Mr. Simon Wolf, Mrs. Isadore Grosner, Miss Hetty Abraham, Mrs. Mike Newmeyer, Mrs. M. D. Jacobs, Mrs. Rebecca Behrend and Miss Seraphina Steinhart.
The annual meeting of this section will be held in the same place Monday, May 7, at 3 p.m., when the usual reports will be read, followed by the election of officers and directors whose terms expire.
Custer's Last Battle.
Paxson's historical painting, "Custer's Last Battle on the Little Big Horn," is now on exhibition at 1001 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. The picture is strong in popular interest, giving as it does a vivid concept of one of the most terrible fights history has ever witnessed. The canvas is a large enough to present recognizable portraits of General Custer, Rain-in-the-Face, Chief Gall, Chief Spotted Eagle and a score more of the men whose names are associated with that memorable day. The painting is the result of minute historical and biographical study and is attracting much interest.
